

The information on this page will be updated frequently with new workshops and agencies – please check back often!

2010 NCCSE Community Advisory Committee
Special Education Parent Symposium
Saturday, March 6, 2010
255 Pico Avenue, San Marcos

FREE to parents whose children attend the NCCSE member school districts of Bonsall Union, Cardiff, Carlsbad Unified, Del Mar Union, Encinitas Union, Fallbrook Union Elementary, Fallbrook Union High, Oceanside Unified, Rancho Santa Fe, Solana Beach, Vallecitos, Vista Unified.

Pre registration required.

No child care is available.

Program:

- 8:00 – 9:00 Registration, light breakfast, agency resource fair
- 9:00 – 10:00 Keynote address
- 10:00 – 10:30 refreshments, agency resource fair
- 10:30 – 11:45 workshops
- 12:00 – 1:15 workshops

Keynote speaker: Dr. June Downing, Professor Emeritus, California State University at Northridge and advocate for people with disabilities.
'We're Better Together: Believing in Your Child.'

(continue to the next page for information about specific workshops & agencies)

Workshops (choose one):

10:30 am – 11:45 am

- Dr. June Downing - Core Curriculum is for EVERYONE! Adapting the Curriculum for Students with Moderate to Severe Disabilities
- Analyzing Behavior: A parent's guide to understanding why children struggle in school and effective strategies for using the IEP process to support them
- The IEP Process for children in preschool through early elementary school
- Organizing your child's paperwork so it works for you!
- Good touch, bad touch -- teaching your child the difference
- Incorporating adaptive P.E. skills and gross motor development at home

Workshops (choose one):

12:00 noon – 1:15 pm

- Dr. June Downing – Building Friendships: Supporting Social Interactions Between Students with and Without Severe Disabilities
- Working with the education system when problems arise
- Analyzing Behavior: A parent's guide to understanding why children struggle in school and effective strategies for using the IEP process to support them (presented in Spanish)
- The IEP process in middle and high school
- Understanding goals and objectives
- Panel of students and teachers talk about self-advocacy
- Incorporating adaptive P.E. skills and gross motor development at home

Agencies in attendance:

- Access to Independence
- Developmental Disabilities Area Board XIII
- Autism Society of America, San Diego Chapter
- Braille Institute
- Child Study Center
- Children's Care Connection
- Consumer Center for Health Education and Advocacy
- Disability Rights California
- Epilepsy Foundation of San Diego County
- Exceptional Family Member Program
- Exceptional Family Resource Center
- First Five Health and Developmental Services
- TERI, Inc.
- YMCA Childcare Resource Service
- United Cerebral Palsy Association